Responsive Reading: Psalm 146

All: Praise the LORD!
Pastor: Praise the LORD, O my soul!

Women: I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
Men: I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

Pastor: Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation. When his breath departs, he returns to the earth; on that very day his plans perish.

All: Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God.

January: He is who made heaven and earth.
February: He made the seas, and all that is in them.
March: God is the one who keeps faith forever.
April: The Lord executes justice for the oppressed.
May: It is He who gives food to the hungry.
June: The LORD sets the prisoners free.
July: The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.
August: The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down.
September: The LORD loves the righteous.
October: The LORD watches over the sojourners;
November: He upholds the widow and the fatherless,
December: But the way of the wicked He brings to ruin.

Pastor: The LORD will reign forever, your God, O Zion, to all generations.

All: Praise the LORD!

1st Lesson – Amos 6:1a,b; 4-7

“Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, “Woe to those who lie on beds of ivory and stretch themselves out on their couches, and eat lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall, who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp and like David invent for themselves instruments of music, who drink wine in...

bowls and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph! Therefore they shall now be the first of those who go into exile, and the revelry of those who stretch themselves out shall pass away.”

2nd Lesson - ! Timothy 6:6-10; 17-19

But godliness with contentment is great gain, for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.

Gospel - Luke 16:19-31

“There was a rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate was laid a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man's table. Moreover, even the dogs came and licked his sores. The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried, and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame.’ But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner bad things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has...

...been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, and none may cross from there to us.’ And he said, ‘Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father's house for I have five brothers so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment.’ But Abraham said, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them.’ And he said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ He said to him, ‘If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead.’”

Special Notice -

Church bells will be ringing all over Minnesota on Sunday, today. This will be done in recognition of Minnesota firefighters who have lost their lives in the performance of their duties. The bell(s) should be rung extra long as people are leaving the church in the hope they will take the meaning with them.
